

I cannot believe we would be entertaining a bill to weaken our current position. The No-Call Law is a godsend. I can't imagine allowing everyone access to my home. The institutions listed as backing this reform will not be patronized by me or the many others